

THE CITY OF EDGEWOOD

“Bill Grady Pocket Park”

WELCOME

The Pocket Park is located at the corner of Dudley Road and Edge Mar Drive, in Edgewood, Kentucky.

The Gazebo for the Pocket Park was designed and constructed by Eagle Scout Adam Rigsby, an Edgewood resident.

- ❖ An important environmental feature in the design of the overall park included consideration for a parking lot surface constructed of a natural water drainage material.

The City of Edgewood wishes to thank all participants who assisted in the Park’s development.

The Park was completed and dedicated on June 3, 2007, in memory of William Grady, a former council member, who served the City of Edgewood - 1994 to 2006.

William Grady’s dedication and hard work have been recognized, and it was with great appreciation that this Park was so named “The Bill Grady Pocket Park”.
