Also, in attendance were City Administrator Brian Dehner, City Clerk Belinda Nitschke, and City Attorney Frank Wichmann.

INVOCATION AND PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

CITIZENS DESIRING RECOGNITION ON LEGISLATIVE MATTERS NOT ON THE AGENDA – Kurt Hanscom, 232 North Colony – Mr. Hanscom asked to be advised on city projects and the cost of credit card fees. Mr. Hanscom questioned why the Childrens Learning Garden was under unfinished business when it was not discussed at the May 1st meeting. Mayor Link responded that it had been discussed several times over the year and a decision had not been made so therefore it was unfinished business. Mr. Hanscom expressed his interest in the citizens voting on issues in the city. Mayor Link stated that why the citizens vote for city council members and the mayor. Mr. Hanscom expressed concern on when the agenda is published. Mrs. Nitschke corrected Mr. Hanscom and stated that the agenda is published on the website at the same time as council gets their packets and it is the Friday before the meeting. Mr. Hanscom asked when the budget would be published and Mayor Link and Mrs. Nitschke explained that the budget is in the draft form currently and once it is voted on by council and published in the newspaper then it would be available to the public. Mr. Spille ask Mr. Dehner about the credit card fee and what was discussed in the budget caucus. Mr. Dehner stated that the credit card line item is between $13,000 - $15,000. Mr. Spille explained the budget process and the fees were discussed but it has not been determined yet how the fees would be handled going forward until the budget process is completed.
